15 YEARS AND COUNTING...

It's hard to believe that fifteen years have come and gone since Liberty Quartet started our music ministry at Boise First Church of the Nazarene. Eleven members, several transmissions, and countless road stories later, the group continues to share the Gospel through Southern Gospel music from coast to coast. One thing we have learned across the years is that God is faithful.

God's faithfulness was on display during the Northwest Gospelfest's Saturday evening concert, a special celebration of Liberty Quartet's first fifteen years. Royce extended an invitation to every Liberty member past and present. Ten of the eleven members were able to be in attendance. Liberty Quartet classics such as "I've Read the Back of the Book", "The Lighthouse", "Holy, Holy, Holy", and "I'm His" filled the auditorium of Nampa First Church of the Nazarene as the guys reunited for a special evening of music.

The night ended with all of the members, past and present, joining in together on "What a Day That Will Be". It was an awesome night!

Northwest Gospelfest also featured our annual Family Fest concert on Friday evening with special guests Talley Trio, RESCUE, Homeland Harmony Quartet, the Ritchey Music Group, and the Homecoming Choir. On Saturday, events such as the Liberty Golf Tournament, a Ladies Brunch with special speaker Lauren Talley, and a "Dinner on the Grounds", kept everyone busy. The weekend closed with a worship service at Nampa First Nazarene on Sunday morning.

Friends came from all over the country to help us celebrate this milestone. I wish I could feature each highlight from the weekend, but that's impossible. However, I have included a few pictures on the next two pages. Enjoy!

The little guy with the BIG voice, Jason Eaton, was back for the reunion.

The entire group sang a few songs.

Over 100 choir members added their talents to the Family Fest concert.

Jordan and I actually didn't play, much to the team's relief.

Royce pulled out some new moves at Family Fest. Very impressive.

We were honored to be one of the featured artists at the 2010 National Quartet Convention in Louisville, KY in September.

PRAISES

Praise God for 15 incredible years of ministry
 God provided traveling mercies on our trip back East
 We have been privileged to share the Gospel in many new venues in the last few weeks
 The Northwest Gospelfest was an outstanding weekend, with many sharing how it ministered to them
 We have seen God move in incredible ways recently, both in concerts and in our personal lives

PRAYERS

Pray that God would use us as His instruments in the next 15 years and beyond
 We ask for God's direction as we look ahead to 2011
 Continue to pray that the bus keeps running well
 Remember all of those who have received spiritual help at our concerts
 Please pray for Candy Jones (wife of original baritone, Keith Jones) as she battles cancer
 We ask for God's protection upon the Liberty Quartet and our families as we travel

NOTES FROM ROYCE

November and December are both some of my favorite times of the year. Staying as busy as we do, it's always nice to be able to celebrate Thanksgiving and Christmas with family and friends. This season is also a time to look back and count our blessings. This year as I reflect on the last fifteen years, I'm reminded of just how many blessings the Heavenly Father has sent our way. Over and over, time and time again, God has proven to be faithful, whether it be in meeting a financial need, supplying a new quartet member, or in providing encouragement and strength for this ministry. I'm forever grateful that the One who called us hasn't left us to walk this journey by ourselves.

The greatest story ever told started in a manger and is still being told today through the power of the resurrected Christ. I challenge you to join me in thanking God for His many blessings.

Happy Thanksgiving and Merry Christmas from the Liberty Quartet. We appreciate your prayers and support.

1 Thess. 5:18: Give thanks in all circumstances, for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus.

- I am praying for Liberty Quartet (Col. 4:2)
- I am interested in supporting Liberty through the "Friends of Liberty" program. Please send information.
