

Worship Concerts by:

Liberty Quartet

Liberty Quartet is celebrating over 25 years and exists to provide a music ministry that impacts our culture for Christ.

Liberty is a Gospel group based in the West with a full-time concert schedule. The members are Royce Mitchell, Paul W. Ellis, Will Arasmith, Doran Ritchey, and Peyton Olive. Liberty travels many miles each year, singing at venues small and large. They cherish the opportunity to connect with people and make new friends wherever they go. They have had the opportunity to share the platform with groups such as Gaither Vocal Band, The Collingsworth Family, Legacy Five, Greater Vision, Booth Brothers, Hoppers, Isaacs, and many others. While featuring everything from high-energy performances to moments of contemplation, Liberty always leads the congregation in an incredible concert of worship. Their ministry bridges all generations, bringing enjoyment to traditional and contemporary venues.

Kent Conrad

Retired Senior Pastor | Director on Liberty Ministries Board

Kent Conrad grew up and graduated from high school in Ainsworth, NE, where he participated in basketball and music. He earned a B.A. from Bethany Nazarene College, now Southern Nazarene University. He then earned his MDiv from Nazarene Theological Seminary.

Kent served as a youth pastor in Spokane, WA, before taking his first senior pastorate at Regency Park Church in Tulsa, OK. He then served at Aurora Church in Shoreline, WA, before coming to Nampa, ID, in 2002.

He served as Senior Pastor at Nampa First Church of the Nazarene until retiring in 2015. He has also served on several boards that help guide the Church of the Nazarene and its colleges.

Kent says that retirement leaves more time for riding his motorcycle (Road Riders for Jesus), following University of Nebraska football, working in residential real estate, and volunteer work such as men's Bible studies and mentoring. Kent and his wife, Kay, have one daughter and son-in-law, Greg and Jennifer Galloway, and two grandchildren, Karyn and Ben.
